Topics for seniors
and those who care for them

July 2022

Greetings,

Susan was invited by Anne Cutbill Lenane to be part of a “Wise and Wonderful Women” panel on Navigating Longterm & Eldercare last month at Hudson Yards. Great turnout and a spectacular venue. I only get invited to present in conference rooms and the basements of libraries!

Then again, Susan is Wise and Wonderful!... I’m just tall and bald.

Thanks to Teres Rodney, owner of Oasis Sr Advisors Brooklyn for attending!

Veterans Aid and Attendance Benefit Explained

When seeking sources of funding to help elderly patients afford senior care, many professionals are unfamiliar with the valuable VA's Aid and Attendance Benefit that can be available to their patients and clients 65 years and older. This VA Pension provides up to $29,172 annually for those paying privately for home care and assisted living as well as nursing home care and adult day, if not paid by other funding sources.
